HEADING

MBA in Dubai: what you actually get

INTRO

Five things below, no brochure language. Built as an MBA in Dubai for working professionals, this is the degree the way our students describe it after a term or two.

ITEMS

A learning community that pulls its weight

Your classmates are founders, bank managers, and government specialists from the UAE, Saudi Arabia, Oman, and Qatar. The WhatsApp group that gets you through assignments becomes the network you call after graduation. It happens every intake, and it costs nothing extra.

ASK Quotient development

Attitude, Skills, Knowledge. Employers screen for all three, and most courses teach one. Your success coach tracks the three of them across the degree, so the change shows up in your work as well as on the certificate.

Skills-based MBA learning

Assignments are shaped like work: a business plan, a market entry analysis, a review of how your team is run. You hand in things you can reuse on a Monday morning, and your manager tends to notice before you graduate.

Knowledge-based MBA learning

The theory comes from your university's faculty, then gets dragged into Gulf reality with regional case material, short readings, and frameworks you can hold in your head. Recordings cover the evenings when work wins.

Real-world case studies

Cases come from businesses that are actually operating, and the final project attacks a problem inside your own company. Several graduates have walked that project straight into a performance review.

4. WHY (4 BLOCKS)

HEADING

Why an MBA for working professionals in UAE makes sense right now

INTRO

A Master's here is not a pause button on your life. It is the shortest route we know to a bigger role, a better salary conversation, and a credential that travels, while the salary keeps arriving.

BLOCKS

Learn without pausing your salary

Campus programmes ask you to quit, move, or wait for Saturday. This one runs on Tuesday and Thursday evenings instead, live, from where you already are. You apply things on Wednesday morning, and that loop is the point. A genuinely flexible MBA schedule, with the salary intact.

Your certificate comes from the university itself

The awarding university issues your certificate, the same one it gives its on-campus students. No asterisk and no footnote about online study. It travels across the GCC and beyond.

Built for promotion and transition

Modules map to what UAE employers screen for: leadership, finance, operations, strategy. The final project uses a live problem from your own workplace, which is concrete proof a mark sheet never is, that you can turn theory into results.

Pay in AED instalments

A campus MBA in UAE cities runs AED 80,000 to 200,000. Online, most programmes on this page total AED 16,000 to 40,000, paid monthly in dirhams and timed to your salary date. The degree fits your cash flow from day one.

A recognised route, explained honestly

Study happens fully online from the UAE. Degrees from an accredited institution can go through MoHESR recognition, and the process is electronic. The route that applies to you depends on your circumstances, so confirm your category with an advisor before you pay. We'd rather lose an enrolment than win a complaint.

Sharjah office, not a call centre

Real counsellors in Sharjah who know this market, your employer's habits, and the recognition paperwork. Walk in, or sort it out on WhatsApp. The same people stay with you until graduation.

5. JOURNEY [NEW SECTION]

HEADING

How to start: five steps

INTRO

Two to four weeks, start to finish. An advisor walks it with you, and the September 2026 intake is open while you read this.

STEPS

1. A free 15-minute eligibility check. Send the CV or just your LinkedIn. No documents yet, no commitment.
2. We confirm admission requirements and fees in writing within 24 hours: the right programme, the total number, the intake dates.
3. You reserve the seat with a first instalment. Seats are capped per intake, and September fills first.
4. Enrolment and induction: portal access, orientation, and your week-one study schedule.
5. Classes begin. Evening sessions, recordings, and a success coach who already knows your name.

MBA specializations in UAE: Pick Your MBA

INTRO

Five routes on one page: twelve specializations at Rushford Business School, six MBAs and sixteen Executive MBAs at Girne American University, a Global MBA awarded in the UK, and an International Business MBA from the University of the West of Scotland. All university-awarded, all online. Compare them, then pick the one that matches the role you want next.

TABS

MBA, Rushford Business School (Switzerland)

Twelve specializations in one format: three-week courses, evening classes, about 16 months.

- MBA in Sustainability, Energy and Environment
- MBA in Strategic Management
- MBA in Real Estate Management
- MBA in Human Resource Management
- MBA in Marketing
- MBA in Logistics & Supply Chain Management
- MBA in Healthcare Leadership

- MBA in Hospitality & Tourism Management
- MBA in Health Economics
- MBA in Entrepreneurship and Innovation
- MBA in Finance
- Master of Business Administration (MBA)

The curriculum leans on leadership, strategy, and decision-making, and it holds up in any industry. Team leads, operations managers, consultants: this is the usual crowd.

MBA, Girne American University (North Cyprus)

Six MBAs with an international cohort, for managers who already know which lane they want:

- MBA in Business Management
- MBA in Financial Management
- MBA in International Business Management
- MBA in Management Information Systems
- MBA in Marketing
- MBA Data Science/Analytics Management

Executive MBA, Girne American University (North Cyprus)

Sixteen Executive MBAs for people who have stopped asking permission:

- Executive MBA in Educational Leadership
- Executive MBA in Media & Entertainment
- Executive MBA in Global Banking & Finance
- Executive MBA in Health & Safety Leadership
- Executive MBA in Renewable Energy & Sustainability
- Executive MBA in Tourism & Hospitality Management
- Executive MBA in Innovation & Entrepreneurship
- Executive MBA in Project Management
- Executive MBA in Human Resources Management
- Executive MBA in Supply Chain Management
- Executive MBA in Health Care Management
- Executive MBA in Engineering Management
- Executive MBA in Public Administration
- Executive MBA in Public Health
- Executive MBA in Digital Marketing
- Executive MBA in Sport Management

Cohorts are small and senior, so the discussion in class is the second curriculum.

Global MBA, University for the Creative Arts (UK) with Rushford

One degree with the borders blurred, awarded in the UK with Rushford. The pick for logistics, trade, and regional HQ roles around Dubai and Abu Dhabi.

MBA in International Business, University of the West of Scotland (UK)

A UK-awarded MBA in International Business: cross-border trade, global strategy, and teams that span time zones. It fits people in import-export and regional roles.

CLOSING LINE

Unsure which route? The 24-hour recommendation call is free, and the advisor has to give a reason, not a pitch.

10. FEES

HEADING

MBA Fees in UAE: What You Actually Pay

INTRO

No hidden lines, and we don't print stale numbers here either. Across programmes, totals usually land between AED 16,000 and 40,000, about a third of a campus MBA in Dubai. Your exact figure gets confirmed in writing before you pay a dirham.

TABLE

Programme	Fees	Duration	Payment
MBA, Rushford (12 specializations)	confirmed per programme	10 to 15 months	AED instalments
MBA, Girne American University	confirmed per programme	10 to 15 months	AED instalments
Executive MBA, Girne American University	confirmed per programme	12 to 18 months	AED instalments
Global MBA, UCA with Rushford	confirmed per programme	10 to 15 months	AED instalments
MSc (Rushford, Girne) and LLM (Wolverhampton)	confirmed per programme	8 to 18 months	AED instalments
MBA in International Business, UWS	confirmed per programme	confirmed per programme	AED instalments

NOTE

Fees move with the programme and the intake. The written confirmation comes before any payment, always.

BLOCKS

A flexible payment plan, in AED, with no interest

No full upfront payment. Monthly instalments in dirhams, timed to your salary cycle, so the degree sits inside your cash flow from day one. Plenty of students get part of it sponsored too; ask, because employers say yes more often than people expect.

What your fee covers

- Full tuition and the university award
- All study materials and portal access
- Session recordings for revision
- Advisor support in Sharjah, on Gulf time
- Induction, enrolment, and student services

Scholarships and early-bird discounts

MBA scholarship support exists for strong candidates, and early birds pay less. Eligibility depends on profile and timing, so ask what yours looks like before you assume the answer.

11. CAREER STORIES

HEADING

What UAE graduates did next

INTRO

Recent outcomes, told plainly. Every one of these started with a full-time job and evening classes.

STORIES

Ahmed, Operations Lead, Dubai	MBA in Logistics & Supply Chain Management	Moved into a regional operations role six months after graduating. His employer supported the fees.
-------------------------------	--	---

Fatima, HR Manager, Riyadh	MBA in Human Resource Management	Used the final project to redesign her company's talent framework. Promoted before the course ended.
Khalid, Branch Manager, Doha	Master of Business Administration	Took over a second branch within a year. The finance modules changed how he reads a P&L.
Sara, Marketing Executive, Abu Dhabi	MBA in Marketing	Led her first regional campaign within a year of graduating. The specialization matched her target role exactly.

12. ALUMNI

HEADING

Alumni in the UAE and across the GCC

COPY

Graduates sit in government departments, free zones, banks, hospital groups, and multinationals across the Gulf. Most new students arrive because a colleague did the degree first and said it was worth the evenings. Ask for alumni references in your industry before you decide; we encourage it.

CHECKLIST

- The university awards your degree, not a third party
- Your certificate is the same as an on-campus graduate's
- Accreditation status is confirmed in writing before you enrol

- Recognition guidance for the UAE, on request, in plain language

14. LEARNING

HEADING

How online learning actually works

INTRO

Not recorded videos gathering dust. A rhythm, with people in it.

POINTS

Live evening classes	Two live sessions a week, recorded when you miss one
Dedicated success coach	One named coach for the whole degree, induction to graduation
Online exams, from home	No travel for assessments. Clear rubrics, timely feedback
Project on your own business	Each module applied to a live challenge from your workplace
Career-relevant assessment	Projects, presentations, and portfolios you can show your employer

15. TESTIMONIALS

HEADING

What students say in their own words

ITEMS

Video 1	"The evening format meant I never missed a single day of work." MBA graduate, Dubai
Video 2	"My advisor in Sharjah handled everything, including how my employer could support the fees." MBA graduate, Abu Dhabi
Video 3	"The final project became a real proposal at my company." MSc graduate, Sharjah

16. COMPARE [NEW SECTION]

HEADING

Online MBA vs Classroom MBA: A Fair Comparison

INTRO

If you have ever weighed a part-time MBA on campus against an online one, this table is the honest version of that argument. Same degree standard, very different life around it.

Aspect	This online MBA	Classroom MBA
Total fees	AED 16,000 to 40,000	Typically AED 80,000 to 200,000+
Commute	Zero	3 to 5 hours a week in traffic
Class timing	Evenings and weekends, from home	Fixed campus timetable

Aspect	This online MBA	Classroom MBA
Visa needed	No	Yes for international campuses
Study while working	Yes, designed for it	Often requires a break
Award on certificate	UK university degree	UK university degree
Networking	Live cohort events and an active WhatsApp community	Campus cohorts

BLOCKS

Fast-track or standard: your choice

A fast-track MBA compresses the same modules for experienced applicants. Standard pace spreads the load across busier seasons. Pick with your calendar; the advisor helps you choose.

The same award, either way

Whichever format you choose, the certificate reads identically. The difference is how you study, not what you earn.

17. FAQ

HEADING

Frequently Asked Questions

ITEMS

Q1. What are the admission requirements for an MBA?

Most programmes ask for a bachelor's degree and 2 to 3 years of work experience, and none of them need a GMAT. If your background looks different, send the CV anyway. Our advisors map entry routes for experienced professionals every week, and they confirm eligibility in writing.

Q2. Are these degrees recognised in the UAE?

Degrees from an accredited institution can be submitted for MoHESR recognition, and the whole process runs electronically through official UAE channels. The study itself happens online from the UAE. Recognition depends on your category, so check it with an advisor before you enrol. The call is free.

Q3. How much does an MBA cost in the UAE?

Between AED 16,000 and 40,000 for most programmes on this page, in instalments. A campus MBA in Dubai typically costs three times that. Your advisor confirms your exact total in writing before you pay.

Q4. Can I study fully online from Dubai or Abu Dhabi?

Yes, and from Sharjah, Al Ain, or anywhere else in the GCC. Classes run on evening and weekend timings built around Gulf working hours, recordings cover the nights you miss, and there is no campus attendance and no student visa.

Q5. When is the next intake?

The September 2026 intake is open now, with later intakes through the year. Seats are capped per intake, so reserving about four weeks ahead keeps onboarding calm. Current dates are confirmed within one working day.

Q6. Is there a fast-track MBA option?

There is. The fast-track MBA compresses the full curriculum for experienced professionals. Ask an advisor if your background qualifies; it's a five-minute conversation.

Q7. Are there scholarships or discounts available?

MBA scholarship support for strong candidates, and early-bird discounts before each intake. Eligibility depends on profile and timing, so ask what applies to you instead of guessing.

Q8. Which MBA specializations are in demand in the UAE?

Finance, healthcare leadership, logistics and supply chain, sustainability, HR, and analytics are where the hiring is, in the UAE and across the GCC. The Specialized MBA tab above lists every concentration you can pick.

Q9. How many hours per week does a part-time MBA need?

Plan on 8 to 10 hours: evening classes, self-study, assessments. Most students do a little most days and a bit on the weekend, with recordings covering missed sessions. That rhythm beats weekend marathons, and the schedule assumes it.

Q10. Will my employer in the UAE accept an online degree?

Most do, and many sponsor staff through one. What employers actually check is the awarding university, which is why we confirm accreditation in writing before you enrol. If HR needs sponsorship paperwork, we prepare it with you.

Q11. Can I study from Saudi Arabia, Oman, or Qatar?

Yes. About half the current cohort sits in the UAE, and the rest study from Saudi Arabia, Oman, Qatar, and beyond. Support runs on Gulf time, and WhatsApp groups keep each intake talking.

Q12. Do I need a student visa?

No. You study online from where you live, so there is no student visa and your residence visa stays exactly as it is. For GCC professionals, that removes the biggest paperwork headache a foreign degree used to carry.
