HEADING

MBA in Dubai: Three Paths to a UK Master's

INTRO

Your situation decides the right path. The same UK degree, three ways to fit it around a full-time role. All three paths end in the same UK award.

ITEMS

Already have your bachelor's?

An MBA or Master's takes 12 to 18 months online. This is the standard path for applicants with 3 or more years of work experience, and the one most students on this page take.

Bachelor's not completed?

Top up the remaining years online, then enter the same Master's. Degrees from the University of Worcester, Sheffield Hallam and Coventry, awarded from the UAE without a student visa.

No bachelor's at all?

A UK-certified graduate diploma from Ruskin Business School opens the direct route to an MBA. Around 12 months, no campus attendance, and it stands on its own in the job market.

Not sure which one fits?

Share your background with an advisor in Sharjah. Within 24 hours you will know your route, your timeline, and your total fees in writing.

Dubai for working professionals

4. WHY (4 BLOCKS)

HEADING

Why an MBA for working professionals in UAE makes sense right now

INTRO

A UK Master's is not a theory course. It is a working professional's fastest route to a wider role, a stronger salary case, and international recognition, without pausing income.

BLOCKS

Learn without pausing your salary

Classroom-based programmes ask you to quit, relocate, or wait for a weekend slot. This degree runs in the evenings and on weekends, live from the UAE, a genuinely flexible MBA schedule that keeps your salary intact. You study after office hours, apply what you learn the very next working day, and never lose a single dirham of income to your education.

A British degree is a British degree

Your certificate is issued by the UK university itself, with the same academic standing as on-campus study. It is recognised worldwide, including across the GCC.

Built for promotion and transition

Every module maps to skills UAE employers screen for: leadership, finance, operations, and strategy. The final project lets you solve a live business problem from your own workplace. Graduates regularly point to that project in interviews, because it is concrete proof that they can turn theory into results.

Pay in AED instalments

A campus MBA in UAE cities typically costs AED 80,000 to 200,000. Online, total fees land between AED 16,000 and 40,000, with no upfront full payment and a schedule that matches your monthly salary.

A recognised route, explained honestly

Study is delivered fully online from the UAE. Degrees from an accredited institution can be submitted for MoHESR recognition. Recognition depends on your circumstances, so confirm your category with an advisor. If recognition matters for your goal, we help you map the right paperwork early.

Sharjah office, not a call centre

Local counsellors who know the UAE market, employer expectations, and the recognition process. Visit the office, or meet an advisor on WhatsApp. The same team stays with you from your first call to graduation.

Total fees	AED 16,000 to 40,000	Typically AED 80,000 to 200,000+

BLOCKS

Fast-track or standard: your choice

A fast-track MBA completes the same modules in a shorter window for experienced applicants. Standard pace spreads the load for busier seasons. Your advisor helps you pick based on your workload.

The same award, either way

Whichever format you choose, the degree on your certificate is identical. The difference is how you study, not what you earn.

17. FAQ

HEADING

Frequently Asked Questions

ITEMS

Q1. What are the admission requirements for an MBA?

Most programmes ask for a bachelor's degree plus 2 to 3 years of work experience. No GMAT is required for the programmes on this page. If your background differs, share your CV: our advisors map alternative entry routes for experienced professionals and confirm your eligibility in writing.

Q2. Are these degrees recognised in the UAE?

Degrees awarded by an accredited institution can be submitted for MoHESR recognition. Recognition is 100% electronic and processed through official UAE channels. Study itself is delivered fully online from the UAE. Confirm your category with an advisor before enrolling; the guidance call is free.

Q3. How much does an MBA cost in the UAE?

Between AED 16,000 and 40,000 for most programmes on this page, paid in instalments. That is roughly one third of a campus MBA in Dubai. Your advisor confirms the exact total in writing before you pay anything.

Q4. Can I study fully online from Dubai or Abu Dhabi?

Yes. All classes run online with evening and weekend timings built for Gulf working hours. Students study from Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Sharjah, and across the GCC. There is no campus attendance and no student visa needed. Recordings mean a business trip never puts you behind.

Q5. When is the next intake?

The September 2026 intake is now open, with later intakes through the year. Seats per intake are limited, so reserve early. Reserving at least four weeks before the start date keeps your onboarding relaxed. Your advisor confirms current dates within one working day.

Q6. Is there a fast-track MBA option?

Yes. The fast-track MBA completes the full curriculum in a compressed timeline for experienced professionals. Ask your advisor whether your background qualifies and how the schedule works.

Q7. Are there scholarships or discounts available?

MBA scholarship support is available for strong candidates, and early-bird discounts apply ahead of each intake. Eligibility depends on your profile and timing. Ask your advisor what applies to you.

Q8. Which MBA specializations are in demand in the UAE?

Finance, healthcare leadership, logistics & supply chain, sustainability, HR, and analytics lead current demand across the UAE and the wider GCC. The Specialized MBA tab above lists every concentration you can pick.

Q9. How many hours per week does a part-time MBA need?

Plan for 8 to 10 hours a week: live evening classes, self-study, and assessments. Most students study after work and on weekends, with recordings covering any session they miss. A little study most days beats long weekend marathons, and the schedule is built for that rhythm.

Q10. Will my employer in the UAE accept an online degree?

UAE employers are broadly comfortable with accredited online degrees, and many sponsor staff through them. What matters most is the awarding university. We confirm accreditation in writing before you enrol, and we can prepare the documents your HR team needs for sponsorship.

Q11. Can I study from Saudi Arabia, Oman, or Qatar?

Yes. Around half the current cohort studies from the UAE, with the rest from Saudi Arabia, Oman, Qatar, and beyond. Support works on Gulf time for every country in the region. WhatsApp study groups run per intake, across time zones.

Q12. Do I need a student visa?

No. You study fully online from your current location, so no student visa is required. You keep your residence visa exactly as it is. That removes one of the biggest barriers to a UK degree for GCC professionals.
