4 categories - BBA | MBA | MSc | Doctoral (PhD/DBA/EPD) | 30 FAQs | 41 programmes covered

About: Rushford Business School (RBS) is an EduQua-certified business school offering 100% online undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral programmes in business and management, taught in English to students worldwide.

Category 1 - Undergraduate (BBA) Programmes

Applies to all 7 BBA programmes: Business Administration, Marketing, Finance, Human Resource Management, Management Information Systems, Hospitality & Tourism Management, Project Management.

General Information

Q. What BBA specialisations does Rushford Business School offer?

Rushford Business School offers the Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) with a choice of seven specialisations, all delivered fully online:

- Business Administration
- Marketing
- Finance
- Human Resource Management
- Management Information Systems
- Hospitality & Tourism Management
- Project Management

Every specialisation builds the same core business foundation, so you can align your degree with your career goals without compromising on fundamentals. The BBA carries 180 ECTS credits, structured across six semesters (typically around 36 months), with flexible online pacing.

Q. Are Rushford BBA programmes taught fully online?

Yes. All Rushford BBA programmes are delivered 100% online in English, so you can study from anywhere in the world. The flexible format is designed to suit both full-time students and those balancing study with work or other commitments.

Q. Is Rushford Business School a recognised institution?

Yes. Rushford Business School is an EduQua-certified business school offering internationally focused higher education in business and management.

Recognition guidance for your specific goals is available from the admissions team.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for Rushford BBA programmes?

Applicants need to have successfully completed upper-secondary (high-school level) education. Recognised school-leaving qualifications, completed diplomas and equivalent preparation studies can also be considered. Your eligibility is confirmed individually through a review by the admissions team.

Q. Do I need an English proficiency test to join a BBA programme?

Programmes are taught in English, so evidence of English proficiency is required. Recognised tests are accepted, and waivers are available - for example, if you completed your schooling in English. The admissions team will confirm the simplest route for your profile.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How does the fee structure work for the BBA programmes?

Tuition is structured to stay affordable, with instalment-based payment plans available so you can spread the cost across your studies. Exact amounts, applicable currency and any current fee support or scholarship offers are confirmed by the admissions team during your eligibility review.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What career opportunities can a BBA from Rushford lead to?

The BBA prepares you for entry-level and early-management roles across core business functions - administration, marketing, finance, people management, information systems, hospitality and project delivery - depending on your chosen specialisation. You graduate with a practical business skill set that applies across industries worldwide.

Q. Can I progress to a master's degree after completing the BBA?

Yes. The BBA provides a recognised undergraduate foundation for progression to postgraduate study, including MBA and MSc programmes, subject to the admission criteria of your chosen programme. Many students continue directly into Rushford's own postgraduate portfolio.

Category 2 - Postgraduate MBA Programmes

Applies to all 12 MBA programmes: Sustainability, Energy and Environment · Strategic Management · Real Estate Management · Human Resource Management · Marketing · Logistics & Supply Chain Management · Healthcare Leadership · Hospitality & Tourism Management · Health Economics · Entrepreneurship and Innovation · Finance · Master of Business Administration (MBA).

General Information

Q. Which MBA specialisations are available at Rushford Business School?

Rushford offers the Master of Business Administration (MBA) as a general-management degree plus 11 specialised tracks, including Strategic Management, Finance, Marketing, Human Resource Management, Logistics & Supply Chain, Healthcare Leadership, Entrepreneurship and Innovation, Sustainability, Real Estate, Hospitality & Tourism, and Health Economics - all delivered fully online in English. MBA specialisations also lead to an additional Ofqual-regulated Level 7 Diploma award by default, published on the official admissions portal - two credentials from one programme.

Q. Can I complete the Rushford MBA while working full-time?

Yes. The MBA is delivered 100% online with a flexible structure specifically designed for working professionals. You can study around your job and apply what you learn directly in your workplace - without pausing your career or relocating.

Q. How long does the Rushford MBA take to complete?

The MBA has a nominal duration of 16 months, carrying 90 ECTS credits, with flexible pacing built in so working professionals can align the timeline with their commitments. The admissions team can help you plan a realistic schedule around your other commitments.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for the Rushford MBA?

You need a recognised bachelor's degree (or an equivalent academic title). In some cases, relevant work experience strengthens your application and can be evidenced through your CV or personal statement. Final eligibility is confirmed through an individual admissions review.

Q. Do I need GMAT or GRE scores to apply for the MBA?

No entrance examination such as GMAT or GRE is listed among the entry requirements - admission is based on your academic background and professional profile.

English proficiency evidence is required, with waivers available for eligible applicants.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. What is the fee structure for the MBA programmes?

MBA tuition is positioned as an affordable, high-quality option, with instalment-based payment plans available. Exact fees, currency and any current scholarship or fee-support offers are confirmed by the admissions team for your intake.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What career outcomes can I expect after the Rushford MBA?

The MBA prepares you for senior management and leadership roles aligned with your specialisation - from strategy, finance and marketing leadership to supply chain, healthcare and sustainability management. It is equally valuable for professionals targeting promotion, career-changers entering new industries, and entrepreneurs building their own ventures.

Q. Can the MBA lead to doctoral study later?

Yes. A completed MBA satisfies the master's-level entry route for doctoral programmes such as the DBA, subject to admission criteria. Rushford's own doctoral portfolio makes this a natural progression path within the same institution.

Category 3 - Postgraduate MSc Programmes

Applies to all 9 MSc programmes: Sustainability and Environmental Management · Strategic Management · Operations and Supply Chain Management · International Business Management · Marketing · Entrepreneurship & Innovation · Finance and Investment · Economics · Business Management.

General Information

Q. Which MSc programmes does Rushford Business School offer?

Rushford offers nine MSc programmes, delivered fully online in English: Business Management, Strategic Management, International Business Management, Marketing, Finance and Investment, Economics, Operations and Supply Chain Management, Entrepreneurship & Innovation, and Sustainability and Environmental Management.

Q. What is the difference between an MBA and an MSc at Rushford?

The MBA is a broad leadership degree built around general management, ideal if you want to move into senior, cross-functional roles. An MSc goes deeper into one subject area - such as finance, marketing or supply chain - making it ideal for building specialist expertise. Both are delivered online and internationally focused; the right choice depends on your career direction, and the admissions team can help you decide.

Q. How long does a Rushford MSc take to complete?

The MSc offers three credit routes with matching durations: a 60 ECTS route (around 12 months), a 90 ECTS route (around 18 months) including a master's thesis, and a 120 ECTS route (around 24 months) including a capstone consulting project. You can choose the depth that fits your goals - the admissions team will help you select the right route.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What do I need to be eligible for an MSc programme?

A recognised bachelor's degree (or equivalent academic title) is required. Relevant work or research experience can support your application where applicable. Eligibility is confirmed individually by the admissions team, along with English proficiency evidence or an applicable waiver.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are MSc fees structured, and are scholarships available?

Tuition is payable through flexible instalment plans, keeping the programme accessible while you study. Exact fees, currency and current scholarship or fee-support availability are confirmed by the admissions team during your eligibility review.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What career paths does an MSc from Rushford support?

An MSc positions you as a specialist in your field - supporting roles such as analyst, manager and consultant in areas like finance, marketing, operations, sustainability and international business. It also provides a strong academic foundation for progression to doctoral study (PhD/DBA), subject to admission criteria.

Category 4 - Doctoral Research Programmes (PhD / DBA / EPD)

Applies to all 13 research specialisations: Supply Chain Management · Quality Management · Operational Management · Marketing · Human Resource Management · Healthcare Management · International Business · Financial Management · Educational Management & Leadership · Data Analytics · Hospitality, Travel & Tourism · Logistics & Supply Chain Management · Global Leadership & Strategy.

General Information

Q. What doctoral options does Rushford Business School offer?

Rushford offers doctoral study through the PhD, DBA and EPD pathways, with a choice of 13 research specialisations - from Supply Chain, Financial Management and Data Analytics to Healthcare Management, Educational Leadership and Global Strategy. All pathways are delivered online with flexible, self-paced research schedules.

Q. What is the difference between a PhD and a DBA?

A PhD focuses on original academic research and suits those targeting scholarly or research careers. A DBA applies doctoral-level research to real business problems, making it ideal for senior professionals and business leaders who want to research within their own industry context. Both are rigorous doctoral qualifications - they differ in orientation, not in level.

Q. How long does a Rushford doctoral programme take?

Most candidates complete their doctorate in around three years, though the timeline varies with your chosen pathway and research pace. A coursework-based route and a research-based route are available, and the research pathway can lead to completion in under three years for well-prepared candidates.

Q. Are the doctoral programmes fully online?

Yes. Doctoral programmes are delivered through online, flexible e-learning, allowing you to progress your research from anywhere in the world while continuing your professional career. Supervision and academic support are provided throughout the research journey.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for the doctoral programmes?

There are three recognised entry routes:

- A master's degree in business/management, or
- A master's in any other discipline plus over 3 years of managerial or business experience, or

- A bachelor's degree in any discipline plus over 8 years of managerial or business

experience (through Recognition of Prior Experience)

This means a formal master's degree is not always mandatory - your professional experience counts. Final eligibility is confirmed through an individual admissions review.

Q. What English proficiency evidence do doctoral applicants need?

Accepted evidence includes IELTS 6+, TOEFL 79+ (iBT), PTE 50+ or an equivalent recognised test taken within the last two years. Waivers are available if you are a native English speaker, completed your schooling or degree in English, or have two or more years of work experience in an English-speaking workplace.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are doctoral programme fees structured?

Doctoral tuition is payable through structured instalment plans, keeping fees manageable across the research period. Exact amounts, currency and any current fee-support offers are confirmed by the admissions team for your chosen pathway and specialisation.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What can I do with a doctorate from Rushford Business School?

A doctorate positions you for the highest levels of professional and academic life - executive leadership and board-level roles, senior consulting, policy and research positions, and teaching or supervisory roles in higher education. It also establishes you as a published authority in your specialisation, strengthening your credibility worldwide.

Fee amounts, scholarships and entry requirements are confirmed individually during the admissions eligibility review and may change without notice.

Girne American University (GAU)

5 categories - BSc | MBA | Executive MBA | MSc (Thesis) | PhD | 32 FAQs | 43 programmes covered

About: Girne American University (GAU), established in 1985, is an internationally focused university teaching in English, with programmes designed to prepare graduates for the global workplace. Its business programmes additionally hold IACBE international accreditation.

Category 1 - BSc Programmes

Applies to all 10 BSc programmes: Business Management · Tourism and Hospitality Management · International Business Management · Psychology · Accounting and Finance Management · Marketing · Human Resources Management · Accounting · Economics · Management Information Systems.

General Information

Q. Which BSc programmes are available at Girne American University?

GAU offers ten BSc programmes spanning business, social science and technology fields: Business Management, International Business Management, Marketing, Accounting, Accounting and Finance Management, Economics, Human Resources Management, Management Information Systems, Tourism and Hospitality Management, and Psychology. All are taught in English to an internationally focused curriculum.

Q. Is a BSc degree from Girne American University recognised?

Yes. GAU is a recognised university, established in 1985, approved by the higher-education authorities YÖDAK and YÖK, and its business programmes additionally hold international accreditation from IACBE (International Accreditation Council for Business Education). For recognition guidance specific to your goals, the admissions team can advise you individually.

Q. Can I study a GAU BSc flexibly while working?

Yes. The BSc programmes follow a flexible learning model designed to support both full-time students and working professionals, so you can progress your degree alongside your other commitments.

Q. How are students assessed on the BSc programmes?

Assessment is carried out through assignments and examinations across the programme stages, building both applied and academic skills. Dedicated academic support and assignment guidance are available throughout your studies.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for the BSc programmes?

You need a completed high-school (upper-secondary) qualification or a recognised equivalent. Your eligibility is confirmed individually through a review by the admissions team, which considers your overall academic profile.

Q. Do I need IELTS or TOEFL to join a BSc programme?

Programmes are taught in English, so evidence of English proficiency is required - but a formal test certificate is not the only route. Recognised scores are accepted, and an alternative English assessment arranged through the university may be available if you don't hold one. The admissions team will confirm the simplest route for your profile.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How do BSc fees and scholarships work?

Fees follow an instalment-friendly structure - a registration fee, an initial payment, and monthly instalments across your studies - with scholarships available, confirmed during your eligibility review. Scholarship offers are typically intake-linked with a defined validity period, so completing your review early helps secure the available benefit.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What can I do after completing a GAU BSc?

Your career direction follows your specialisation - from business, marketing, finance and HR roles to hospitality management, economic analysis, information systems and psychology-related pathways. Graduates also hold a recognised undergraduate qualification for progression to postgraduate study, including GAU's own MBA, EMBA and MSc programmes, subject to admission criteria.

Category 2 - MBA Programmes

Applies to all 6 MBA programmes: Business Management · Financial Management · International Business Management · Management Information Systems · Marketing · Data Science/Analytics Management.

General Information

Q. Which MBA specialisations does Girne American University offer?

GAU offers the MBA with six specialisations: Business Management, Financial Management, International Business Management, Marketing, Management Information Systems, and Data Science/Analytics Management - combining classic management depth with contemporary, data-driven options, all taught in English.

Q. How long does the GAU MBA take to complete?

The MBA is typically completed in around 1.5 to 2 years (up to four semesters), with the exact timeline depending on your study pace and route. The admissions team can help you plan a realistic schedule around your professional commitments.

Q. Can I do the GAU MBA without pausing my career?

Yes. The MBA follows a flexible learning structure designed for working professionals, letting you apply new skills directly in your workplace as you study.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for the GAU MBA?

You need a recognised bachelor's degree in any discipline, plus evidence of English proficiency (recognised test scores, or an alternative assessment where available). No entrance examination such as GMAT or GRE is listed among the requirements - admission is based on your academic and professional profile. Final eligibility is confirmed through an individual admissions review.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. What is the fee structure for the MBA?

MBA tuition follows an instalment-based structure to keep payments manageable while you study, with scholarship availability confirmed during your eligibility review. Exact amounts, currency and current offers are confirmed by the admissions team for your intake.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What career outcomes can the GAU MBA support?

The MBA prepares you for management and senior-professional roles aligned with your specialisation - from business leadership, financial management and marketing strategy to information systems and data-driven decision-making roles. It also provides a master's-level foundation for doctoral study, subject to admission criteria.

Category 3 - Executive MBA (EMBA) Programmes

Applies to all 16 EMBA programmes: Educational Leadership · Media & Entertainment · Global Banking & Finance · Health & Safety Leadership · Renewable Energy & Sustainability · Tourism & Hospitality Management · Innovation & Entrepreneurship · Project Management · Human Resources Management · Supply Chain Management · Health Care Management · Engineering Management · Public Administration · Public Health · Digital Marketing · Sport Management.

General Information

Q. Which Executive MBA specialisations does GAU offer?

GAU offers one of the widest EMBA portfolios available - 16 specialisations - spanning banking and finance, healthcare, public administration, engineering, supply chain, digital marketing, sustainability, media, sport management and more. Whatever sector you lead in, there is an EMBA track aligned to it.

Q. What is the difference between an MBA and an Executive MBA?

An MBA builds broad management capability and suits professionals at earlier or mid-career stages. An Executive MBA (EMBA) is designed for experienced professionals and leaders - it assumes workplace maturity and focuses on strategic, sector-specific leadership. Both are master's-level qualifications; the right choice depends on your experience level and career stage, and the admissions team can help you decide.

Q. Can I complete the EMBA while working full-time?

Yes - that is exactly who the EMBA is built for. The flexible structure is designed around the schedules of working executives and managers, so you can lead your organisation and study in parallel, applying strategic insights to your role immediately.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for the EMBA?

You need a recognised bachelor's degree, and your professional experience forms a key part of your application - the EMBA is aimed at candidates with meaningful workplace responsibility. Eligibility is confirmed individually through an admissions review of your academic and professional profile, along with English proficiency evidence or an applicable alternative assessment.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are EMBA fees structured?

EMBA tuition is payable through structured instalments, keeping the investment manageable alongside your professional income. Exact fees, currency and any current scholarship or fee-support offers are confirmed by the admissions team for your chosen specialisation and intake.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What impact can the EMBA have on my career?

The EMBA is built to accelerate movement into senior leadership - directorships, executive management and strategic roles - within your sector. Because the 16 tracks map to specific industries (healthcare, banking, public administration, energy, sport and more), your qualification signals both leadership capability and sector authority, wherever in the world you work.

Category 4 - MSc Programmes (with Thesis)

Applies to all 4 MSc programmes: Business Management · Economics · Healthcare Management · Counselling Psychology.

General Information

Q. Which thesis-based MSc programmes does GAU offer?

GAU offers four MSc programmes with thesis: Business Management, Economics, Healthcare Management, and Counselling Psychology. Each combines taught study with a supervised research thesis, taught and written in English.

Q. What does "MSc with Thesis" actually mean?

An MSc "with thesis" is a research-oriented master's degree: alongside taught modules, you plan and complete an original, supervised research project (thesis) in your field. It develops deeper analytical and research skills than a purely taught master's - which is why it is the preferred route for students considering doctoral study or research-based careers.

Q. Who should choose the thesis-based MSc route?

Choose the thesis route if you want to specialise deeply, build genuine research capability, or keep the door open to a PhD. It suits aspiring researchers, analysts, academics and professionals whose fields value evidence-based expertise - such as healthcare management, economics and counselling psychology.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What do I need to be eligible for a thesis-based MSc?

A recognised bachelor's degree is required, plus evidence of English proficiency (recognised scores or an alternative assessment where available). Some programmes may consider your academic background relative to the chosen field. Final eligibility is confirmed through an individual admissions review.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are MSc fees structured, and are scholarships available?

MSc tuition follows an instalment-based structure, with scholarship availability confirmed during your eligibility review. Exact amounts, currency and current offers are confirmed by the admissions team for your intake.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. Does a thesis-based MSc help me get into a PhD?

Yes - significantly. A completed, supervised thesis is direct evidence of research capability, which doctoral admissions value highly. Graduates progress to PhD study (including GAU's own PhD portfolio) subject to admission criteria, or into specialist and research-informed roles in their field.

Category 5 - PhD Programmes

Applies to all 7 PhD programmes: Business Management · Marketing · Management Information Systems · Psychology · Educational Administration · Law · Tourism & Hospitality.

General Information

Q. Which PhD programmes does Girne American University offer?

GAU offers seven PhD programmes: Business Management, Marketing, Management Information Systems, Psychology, Educational Administration, Law, and Tourism & Hospitality. Each is a research doctorate completed under academic supervision, in English.

Q. Can I pursue a GAU PhD while continuing to work?

Doctoral research is structured around your own research schedule, which many candidates run alongside professional roles - especially where the research connects to their field of work. The admissions team can advise on planning a sustainable research timeline.

Q. How long does a PhD at GAU take?

PhD duration is individual - it depends on your research topic, pathway and pace. Typical doctoral timelines are confirmed with the admissions team when you discuss your research proposal.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for the PhD programmes?

Doctoral applicants typically need:

- A recognised master's degree in a relevant field
- A research proposal outlining your intended study area
- A CV and academic reference letters
- Evidence of English proficiency at doctoral level

Final eligibility is confirmed through an individual admissions review, which may include a discussion of your research plans.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are PhD fees structured?

PhD tuition is payable through structured instalments across the research period. Exact amounts, currency and any current fee-support offers are confirmed by the admissions team for your programme and intake.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What can a PhD from GAU lead to?

A PhD establishes you as a researcher and authority in your field - opening academic careers (lecturing, research, supervision), senior specialist and policy roles, and leadership positions where doctoral-level expertise carries weight. Across all seven disciplines, it is the highest academic qualification you can earn.

Fee amounts, scholarships and entry requirements are confirmed individually during the admissions eligibility review and may change without notice.

University of the West of Scotland (UWS)

1 category - BA (Hons) Global Business | 9 FAQs | 1 programmes covered

About: The University of the West of Scotland (UWS) is a long-established public university whose degrees are recognised internationally. The BA (Hons) in Global Business is its flexible route into an honours-level business qualification for globally minded students and working professionals.

Category 1 - BA (Hons) in Global Business

Single-programme category.

General Information

Q. What is the BA (Hons) in Global Business from UWS?

The BA (Hons) in Global Business is an honours-level bachelor's degree awarded by the University of the West of Scotland (UWS). It develops your understanding of international markets, business strategy and cross-cultural management - preparing you to work with organisations and teams anywhere in the world.

Q. Is this a top-up degree, and what does that mean?

Yes - the programme follows a top-up route. A top-up degree lets you build on your previous studies or professional qualifications and complete only the final stage of the bachelor's degree, instead of starting from year one. It is one of the fastest recognised ways to convert prior learning into a full degree award.

Q. How long does the BA (Hons) Global Business take to complete?

Because it is a top-up programme, it is designed to be completed in around 12 months (one year) of study. The exact timeline depends on your intake and study pace, which the admissions team will confirm with you.

Q. Can I study the programme online while working?

Yes. The programme is designed for working professionals, with online classes you can join from anywhere in the world. This means you can upgrade your qualifications to an honours degree without pausing your career or relocating.

Q. Is a degree from the University of the West of Scotland recognised?

Yes. UWS is a long-established public university, and its degrees are recognised internationally by employers and academic institutions. For recognition guidance specific to your goals, the admissions team can advise you individually.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for the BA (Hons) Global Business?

As a top-up programme, entry is based on your prior learning: typically a completed higher diploma-level qualification (such as an HND or a recognised equivalent) in a business-related area - with relevant professional experience also considered as an alternative route, subject to approval. Your eligibility is confirmed individually through a review by the admissions team, along with English proficiency evidence where applicable.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are the fees structured for this programme?

Tuition follows an instalment-friendly structure, keeping payments manageable across your study period. Exact amounts, currency and any current scholarship or fee-support offers are confirmed by the admissions team during your eligibility review.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What can I do after completing the BA (Hons) Global Business?

Graduates move into globally oriented business roles - international operations, business development, marketing, supply chain and management positions with organisations that work across borders. For professionals already in work, the honours degree strengthens promotion cases and formalises experience with a recognised qualification.

Q. Can I progress to a master's or MBA after this degree?

Yes. The BA (Hons) is a full honours bachelor's qualification, which is the standard entry credential for master's-level study - including MBA and specialised master's programmes - subject to the admission criteria of your chosen programme. Many top-up graduates continue directly into postgraduate study to compound their momentum.

Fee amounts, scholarships and entry requirements are confirmed individually during the admissions eligibility review and may change without notice.

University for the Creative Arts (UCA)

1 category - Global MBA (dual award with RBS) | 9 FAQs | 1 programmes covered

About: The University for the Creative Arts (UCA) is an established university with a long creative-education heritage. Through the Global MBA, delivered in partnership with Rushford Business School (RBS), students earn a dual MBA award in one programme.

Category 1 - Global MBA (Dual Award with Rushford Business School)

Single-programme category.

General Information

Q. What is the Global MBA offered through UCA and Rushford Business School?

The Global MBA is a triple-certified master's programme: on completion you receive two MBA awards - one from the University for the Creative Arts (UCA) and one from Rushford Business School (RBS) - plus an Ofqual-regulated Level 7 Diploma. It is delivered fully online in English, so you can study from anywhere in the world.

Q. What does a "dual MBA award" actually mean, and why does it matter?

A dual award means you complete one programme of study but graduate with two separate MBA qualifications from two different institutions. This widens the recognition of your credentials with employers and academic bodies, and gives your CV two institutional endorsements for a single investment of time and money.

Q. How long does the Global MBA take, and how many credits is it worth?

The Global MBA takes 12 to 18 months and carries 90 ECTS credits (180 equivalent credits). The pace is flexible, so working professionals can align the timeline with their commitments - the admissions team will help you plan your intake and schedule.

Q. Is the Global MBA delivered fully online?

Yes. The programme is delivered through fully online e-learning, with a weekly study commitment designed to fit around professional life.

Q. How is the Global MBA structured?

The programme runs in two stages: a taught stage covering strategic management, leadership, planning and decision-making, followed by a master's thesis stage completed under the awarding university's framework. This structure means you finish with both applied coursework and a substantial piece of master's-level research.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for the Global MBA?

The core requirement is a recognised bachelor's degree (or equivalent academic title) in any discipline - this is the published criterion on the official admissions portal for this delivery route. Your professional profile supports your application, and English proficiency evidence is required, with waivers available for eligible applicants. Final eligibility is confirmed through an individual admissions review.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. What does the Global MBA cost, and can I pay in instalments?

Yes - two payment routes are published on the official admissions portal: a one-time payment (CHF 9,900), or an instalment plan (initial deposit of CHF 1,800 plus six monthly instalments of CHF 1,400). The admissions team will confirm the exact fee and best payment route for your intake.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What career advantage does the Global MBA give?

You graduate with two MBA awards and a regulated Level 7 diploma - a distinctive credential set for senior management, strategy and leadership roles with organisations that operate internationally. The dual endorsement is particularly valuable when your career spans multiple markets or you work with globally distributed teams.

Q. Can I continue to a doctorate after the Global MBA?

Yes. The Global MBA is a full master's-level qualification, satisfying the standard entry route for doctoral study - including PhD and DBA programmes - subject to admission criteria. Rushford's own doctoral portfolio makes this a natural next step within the same partnership ecosystem.

Fee amounts, scholarships and entry requirements are confirmed individually during the admissions eligibility review and may change without notice.

University of Wolverhampton (UOW)

1 category - Master of Laws (LLM) | 9 FAQs | 1 programmes covered

About: The University of Wolverhampton (UOW) is a long-established public university. Its Master of Laws (LLM) offers a flexible, online route to a recognised postgraduate law qualification for legal professionals and law-oriented graduates worldwide.

Category 1 - Master of Laws (LLM)

Single-programme category.

General Information

Q. What is the Master of Laws (LLM) from the University of Wolverhampton?

The Master of Laws (LLM) is a postgraduate law degree awarded by the University of Wolverhampton (UOW), delivered through flexible online learning. It deepens your command of legal analysis, research and argument - a recognised master's-level credential for legal and compliance careers worldwide.

Q. How does the LLM top-up route work?

The top-up route lets you convert a Level 7 postgraduate diploma in a law-related field into a full LLM by completing the final master's stage - centred on an independent legal research project - in as little as around six months. It is designed for professionals who have already completed diploma-level legal study and want the full master's award.

Q. Can I do the LLM without a traditional law degree?

Possibly, yes. Standard entry is via a law or joint-law honours degree, but applicants with significant professional experience in relevant legal or regulatory areas may be considered through a non-standard entry review - sometimes including an interview. The admissions team will assess your profile individually.

Q. Can I complete the LLM while working?

Yes. The programme is delivered through online and distance learning, built for working legal and compliance professionals - you can study around court schedules, client work or office hours, from anywhere in the world.

Q. Is a degree from the University of Wolverhampton recognised?

Yes. UOW is a long-established public university whose degrees are recognised internationally by employers and academic institutions. For recognition guidance specific to your goals, the admissions team can advise you individually.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for the LLM?

Entry depends on your route:

- Top-up route: a completed Level 7 postgraduate diploma in law or a closely related field
- Standard route: an honours degree in law or a joint-law subject

- Non-standard route: significant relevant professional experience, assessed individually

English proficiency evidence is required, with exemptions available where your prior education was completed in English.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are the LLM fees structured?

Tuition follows an instalment-friendly structure, keeping payments manageable across your studies. Exact amounts, currency and any current scholarship or fee-support offers are confirmed by the admissions team during your eligibility review.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What career opportunities can the LLM support?

The LLM strengthens careers across legal practice support, corporate counsel teams, compliance, regulatory affairs, contracts, arbitration support, policy and academia. For practising professionals, it signals master's-level expertise; for career-changers, it opens law-adjacent roles where advanced legal knowledge is valued.

Please note: the LLM is an academic qualification. Rights to practise law are governed by the professional regulatory body in each jurisdiction and are not conferred by the degree itself.

Q. Can I progress to doctoral study after the LLM?

Yes. The LLM is a full master's-level qualification and satisfies the standard entry route for doctoral study in law and related fields - including PhD programmes - subject to admission criteria. The independent research component of the LLM is strong preparation for doctoral-level work.

Fee amounts, scholarships and entry requirements are confirmed individually during the admissions eligibility review and may change without notice.

Gatehouse Level 7 Diplomas

1 category - Level 7 Diplomas (4 tracks) | 9 FAQs | 4 programmes covered

About: Gatehouse Level 7 Diplomas are postgraduate-level professional qualifications positioned at the same framework level as master's degrees, offering a faster, flexible route to senior-level credentials - with progression pathways towards full master's awards.

Category 1 - Level 7 Diplomas

Applies to all 4 diplomas: Strategic Leadership & Management · Educational Leadership & Management · Psychology · Strategic Project Management in Construction.

General Information

Q. Which Gatehouse Level 7 Diplomas are available?

Four Level 7 Diplomas are offered, each aligned to a distinct professional track:

- Strategic Leadership & Management - for current and aspiring senior managers
- Educational Leadership & Management - for education professionals moving into leadership
- Psychology - for advanced study of psychological theory and practice
- Strategic Project Management in Construction - for construction-sector project leaders

All are delivered flexibly and assessed at postgraduate level.

Q. What is a Level 7 Diploma - is it really master's level?

Yes, in framework terms. Level 7 is the same level at which master's degrees sit on the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF) - so a Level 7 Diploma certifies postgraduate-level knowledge and skills. It differs from a full master's degree mainly in credit volume and the research component, which is why it can be completed faster. Gatehouse Awards is an awarding organisation recognised by Ofqual (the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation), and its Level 7 diplomas are designed as regulated qualifications with unique accreditation numbers.

Q. What is the difference between a Level 7 Diploma and a full master's degree?

A Level 7 Diploma typically carries 120 credits of taught, applied study, while a full master's degree adds a dissertation/research stage (usually 60 further credits). In practice: the diploma gets you postgraduate-level certification faster, and you can later top up to a full master's by completing the research stage with a university, subject to admission criteria.

Q. How long does a Level 7 Diploma take, and how is it assessed?

Level 7 Diplomas are designed for fast, flexible completion - typically around six months to a year, depending on your pace. Assessment is through coursework and a portfolio of evidence rather than examinations, letting you demonstrate learning through real professional scenarios.

Q. Can I study a Level 7 Diploma online while working full-time?

Yes. The diplomas follow a flexible, self-paced online model built for working professionals - most learners study alongside their current role and apply the material directly at work.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for a Level 7 Diploma?

Entry is typically open to holders of a bachelor's degree or equivalent qualification, and applicants with substantial relevant professional experience may also be considered - Level 7 study values workplace seniority alongside academic history. Eligibility is confirmed individually by the admissions team.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are the fees structured for the Level 7 Diplomas?

Tuition follows an instalment-friendly structure, keeping payments manageable across your study period. Exact amounts, currency and any current offers are confirmed by the admissions team during your eligibility review.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. Can a Level 7 Diploma lead to a full master's degree?

Yes - this is one of its biggest advantages. After completing the diploma, you can progress to a master's top-up route, completing the final research stage with a university to earn the full master's award, subject to admission criteria.

Q. What career impact can a Level 7 Diploma have?

The diploma signals postgraduate-level capability in months, not years - strengthening cases for promotion into senior management, education leadership, psychology-informed roles and construction project leadership, depending on your track. It is equally valuable as a stepping stone: certify now, top up to a master's when ready.

Fee amounts, scholarships and entry requirements are confirmed individually during the admissions eligibility review and may change without notice.

Qualifi Diplomas

3 categories - Level 3 | Level 5 Extended | Level 7 | 19 FAQs | 45 programmes covered

About: Qualifi diplomas span three levels - Level 3, Level 5 Extended and Level 7 - forming a complete study ladder: start at the level that matches your background, and progress step by step towards degree-level and postgraduate-level qualifications.

Category 1 - Level 3 Diplomas

Applies to all 8 diplomas: Business Management · Introduction to Management · Integrated Business and Management · Business Innovation and Entrepreneurship · Health and Social Care · Hospitality and Tourism Management · Accounting and Finance · Information Technology.

General Information

Q. Which Qualifi Level 3 Diplomas are available?

Eight Level 3 Diplomas are offered across business, management, entrepreneurship, health and social care, hospitality and tourism, accounting and finance, and information technology - giving you a foundation-level entry point into whichever career direction you choose.

Q. Is Qualifi a recognised awarding organisation?

Yes. Qualifi is an awarding organisation approved and regulated by Ofqual (the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulation), and its diplomas are accredited to the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF), each carrying its own unique qualification accreditation number that appears on your final certificate.

Recognition guidance for your goals is available from the admissions team.

Q. What is a Level 3 Diploma, and who is it for?

A Level 3 Diploma is a foundation-level qualification - the stage that prepares you for higher-level study or your first professional roles. It suits school-leavers, career starters and career changers who want a structured, recognised entry point into a field without committing to a full degree straight away.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What do I need to enrol in a Level 3 Diploma?

Entry is designed to be accessible: typically a completed school-level education, with your profile reviewed individually by the admissions team. No prior professional qualification is expected at this level.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are Level 3 Diploma fees structured?

Fees follow an instalment-friendly structure with exact amounts, currency and current offers confirmed by the admissions team during your eligibility review.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What can I progress to after a Level 3 Diploma?

Two clear routes open up: step into entry-level roles in your chosen field, or continue up the ladder - including progression towards Level 5 study and, over time, degree-level and postgraduate qualifications.

Many learners use Level 3 as the first rung of a planned journey to higher qualifications.

Category 2 - Level 5 Extended Diplomas

Applies to all 14 diplomas: Business Management · Health and Social Care · Psychology · Hospitality and Tourism Management · Accounting and Finance · Law · Information Technology · IT-Networking · IT-Web Design · IT-E-commerce · Cyber Security · Networking and Cyber Security · Occupational Health and Safety · Education and Training Management.

General Information

Q. Which Level 5 Extended Diplomas are available?

Fourteen Level 5 Extended Diplomas are offered - from business, law, psychology and accounting to a deep technology cluster (IT, networking, web design, e-commerce, cyber security) plus health and social care, occupational health and safety, and education and training management. It is the widest level of the Qualifi ladder for specialising early.

Q. What does "Extended Diploma" mean at Level 5?

An Extended Diploma carries a larger credit volume than a standard diploma at the same level - the Qualifi Level 5 Extended Diplomas carry 240 credits, combining Level 4 and Level 5 study (120 credits at each level). That makes them academically comparable to the first two years of a bachelor's degree, representing substantial higher-education learning in your field.

Q. Which level should I start at - Level 3 or Level 5?

It depends on where you are today. Start at Level 3 if you're building from school-level education or changing fields; start at Level 5 if you already have foundation-level qualifications or relevant work experience and want to move faster towards degree-level recognition. The admissions team will review your background and recommend the level that fits - you never need to guess.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. What are the entry requirements for a Level 5 Extended Diploma?

Typically a Level 3 qualification or equivalent - with relevant work experience also considered as an alternative entry route, reviewed individually. English proficiency evidence may be requested where applicable.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are Level 5 Extended Diploma fees structured?

Fees are payable through manageable instalments, with exact amounts, currency and any current offers confirmed by the admissions team for your chosen track and intake.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. Can a Level 5 Extended Diploma lead to a bachelor's degree?

Yes - this is the level's biggest advantage. Because the Extended Diploma covers 240 credits across Levels 4 and 5 (comparable to the first two years of a bachelor's degree), it is designed to support direct entry into the final year of a bachelor's degree (a degree top-up route), subject to the receiving institution's criteria. Alternatively, you can step into supervisory and specialist roles in your field with a recognised higher-level credential.

Category 3 - Level 7 Diplomas

Applies to all 23 diplomas: Business Strategy · Ethical Leadership · Executive Management · Strategic Management and Innovation · Strategic Management and Leadership · Project Management · Risk Management · Strategic Marketing · Health and Social Care · Psychology · Occupational Health and Safety Management · International OHS Management · Process Safety Management · Hospitality and Tourism Management · Human Resource Management · Accounting and Finance · Law · International Business Law · IT · Data Science · Cyber Security · Logistics and Supply Chain Crisis Management · Educational Management and Leadership.

General Information

Q. Which Qualifi Level 7 Diplomas are available?

Twenty-three Level 7 Diplomas - the widest postgraduate-level diploma range in our portfolio - covering strategy, leadership, project and risk management, marketing, HR, accounting and finance, law, health and safety, hospitality, IT, data science, cyber security, supply chain and education management. If your profession has a leadership track, there is almost certainly a Level 7 route for it here.

Q. Who are the Qualifi Level 7 Diplomas designed for?

They are built for graduates and experienced professionals who want postgraduate-level certification focused on applied, workplace-ready capability - managers formalising their experience, specialists stepping up to strategic roles, and professionals preparing a bridge towards a full master's qualification.

Eligibility & Admission

Q. Do I need a degree to enrol in a Qualifi Level 7 Diploma?

Not necessarily. Typical entry is a bachelor's degree or equivalent, but applicants with substantial relevant professional experience may be considered through an individual review - at this level, workplace seniority genuinely counts.

Q. How long do the Level 7 Diplomas take, and how are they assessed?

The diplomas follow a flexible, self-paced model with assignment-based assessment, designed to complete within months rather than years - the exact timeline depends on your track and pace. The admissions team will map a realistic plan with you.

Fees, Scholarships & Payments

Q. How are Level 7 Diploma fees structured?

Tuition follows an instalment-based structure across your study period. Exact amounts, currency and current offers are confirmed by the admissions team for your chosen track and intake.

Careers & Outcomes

Q. What can I progress to after a Qualifi Level 7 Diploma?

Progression routes follow your subject area, subject to admission criteria:

- Management and strategy tracks -> master's-level top-up routes, including MBA pathways
- Law tracks -> progression towards a Master of Laws (LLM) top-up route
- All tracks -> senior professional roles carrying postgraduate-level certification

This ladder design means your diploma is never a dead end - it is a stage in a longer qualification journey.

Q. What career impact can a Qualifi Level 7 Diploma have?

Postgraduate-level certification in your exact professional lane - from cyber security leadership and supply chain crisis management to educational leadership and international business law. Because the 23 tracks are sector-specific, the diploma signals both seniority and domain authority, strengthening promotion cases and senior-role applications worldwide.

Fee amounts, scholarships and entry requirements are confirmed individually during the admissions eligibility review and may change without notice.
